Royal Spa Brass Protection Policy Statement

The Royal Spa Brass Management Committee, Trustees, Members and all Volunteers associated with the organisation will work to ensure that we:

- Safeguard to the best of our ability the welfare and well-being of the children and young people linked to our group
- Provide a safe environment for the activities of the organisation where children and young people are always protected, listened to and encouraged to talk about their experiences or any concerns that they may have
- Recognise that children and young people suffer abuse in many forms – physical, sexual, emotional and/or neglect.

Royal Spa Brass Code of Conduct

At Royal Spa Brass we always:

- Treat children and young people with respect and tolerance
- Treat all members, officers, parents and volunteers with respect and set an example of good conduct for others to follow
- Are non-judgmental when dealing with children and young people and respect their individual rights and opinions.
- Respect the 'right to privacy'.
- Recognise and encourage the achievements of all band members.
- Remember that insults or verbal abuse from anyone will not be tolerated and must be challenged.
- Are vigilant when dealing with a sensitive matter or situation.
- Are aware of the possible implications of physical contact with children and young people. Recognise that actions, no matter how well intended, might be misinterpreted.
- Ensure that all children and young people are properly supervised at all times and whenever possible by more than one adult and that activities are within sight or hearing of others.
- Ensure reasonable precautions are taken to protect children and young people from 'outsiders' in particular when attending venues for events or performances.
- Seek advice whenever in doubt.

At Royal Spa Brass we DO NOT:

- Allow bullying or allow children or young people to feel “down trodden” or to be made a “fool of”
- Make suggestive remarks, gestures or derogatory comments in the presence of children and young people.
- Exaggerate or trivialise child abuse issues
- Allow ourselves to be drawn into any situation which might appear improper.
- Jump to conclusions or ‘take a chance’ where common sense, policy, or practice suggests another more prudent approach.

Action Statement

We will be proactive at all times and be ready to recognise the signs and symptoms. If we suspect, or are informed that a child or young person is experiencing abuse, we NEVER try to investigate further. We will always refer to the guidelines as set out for reporting an allegation and seek further advice from specialist services. We do not pass judgement on what is said. We will try to reassure the child or young person. We do not ask questions about what we might suspect. We make it clear that we are available to listen and can offer support but that we MUST pass on the information.

If an allegation is made, or concerns are raised, the person in receipt of the alleged allegation or concern should ensure that a record is made by completing a Royal Spa Brass CPP Incident Report and immediately reported to the Welfare Officer, or in their absence to the Chairman of the Management Committee. Remember...Do not try to sort it out yourself.

The Internet

Royal Spa Brass makes extensive use of the Internet via its website at www.royalspabrass.com and via email in order to communicate to and interact with members and the public. We will undertake to monitor website activity as far as possible and to safeguard communications via email to prevent any inappropriate or unwanted contact. Email communications to young members will only be sent to parents and not directly to young members. Specific information about our activities will only be displayed on the Members' Page which is password protected. Photographs of band members may, with their consent appear on the Website but only without the identification of the band members. Parental consent is required before a young person's photograph is published.

From the 12th October 2009 there are changes in the way CRB checks are made.

Before 12th October most CRB checks and been Standard Checks – this mean that they are only checked via the Police National Computer Records, Sec.142 Education Act 2002, protection of Children Act List information and Protection of Vulnerable Adults list.

From October 12th the new system, ISA 'Children's List & Vulnerable Adults List, will replace all of the above. More information can be found at <http://www.crb.gov.uk/VBS>
