

Subscription scheme – effective October 2009

Considerations:

- Fairness, simplicity, affordability.
- Impact on existing subscribers
- Incentives to join/stay/attract experienced players
- Value for money
- Acknowledge and encourage family groups.
- Participation in multiple groups

Membership applies to the Royal Spa Brass organisation, not specific groups/bands. Subscriptions are payable by monthly standing order. 6 weeks free trial for new starters.

Basic membership £12 per month

Concessions £6 per month

Family Group £18 per month

Concessions apply to members who are:

- In Full Time Education
- Unemployed
- Senior Citizens (State Pension)
- Using their own instrument (unless any of the above already apply)

Family Group membership is available to those living in the same household and provides for an unlimited number of participants. (e.g one adult+ two children, three youngsters, four youngsters, two adults + one child all pay the same Family Group membership).

Exceptions for special cases may be made after consideration and approval by the Mgt Team.

Members leaving Royal Spa Brass will be liable for subscription charges until band instruments are returned (where applicable).

The new scheme will not be backdated but will be implemented from October 2009.
